CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD WITH THE MARK 10 MISSION

In the coming weeks, Liturgies of the Word will begin for children during 11:00am Sunday Mass. Parishioner Greg Finn, founder of the children's ministry The Mark 10 Mission, will lead alongside Mary Hymas. The liturgies are open to all primary school aged children who are yet to make their First Holy Communion. This will be an opportunity for children to hear the Gospel proclaimed and to be led in prayer. The hope for the liturgies is that they will assist parents and families in leading their children in faith. Children will be invited to contemplate and wonder about the Sunday Gospel passage. We encourage families to continue conversations about the Gospel at home. Children will also be formed in the art of prayer so that they can join their families in prayer during the week. We politely ask that children yet to start school stay in Mass with their parents and also that parents do not accompany children to the liturgies. We hope that through the children's liturgies, parents with young children can enter into the liturgy of the Word more fully themselves.

THE MARK 10 MISSION - ROSARY CHALLENGE

FROM YOUR PARISH PRIEST

This week, the Church celebrates two great feasts that are often overlooked these days. The Feast of the Archangels (29th of September) and the Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels (2nd of October). These days are not just pious reminders of whimsical mythical figures, they are solemn acknowledgments of God's providential care through the ministry of angels, real spiritual beings who serve Him and assist us.

On the first of these feasts, the Church honours three specific archangels named in Sacred Scripture: Michael, Gabriel and Raphael. Each of these angelic beings carries out a distinct mission in salvation history. St Michael is the warrior of Heaven, the one who casts Lucifer from paradise (Revelation 12:7–9). His name means “Who is like God?”, a battle cry against pride and rebellion. He is the Church's protector and the angel we invoke in spiritual warfare. St Gabriel, the messenger, appears in the Gospel of Luke to announce to Mary that she will conceive the Son of God (Luke 1:26–38). His name means “God is my strength.” St Raphael, whose name means “God heals,” is found in the Book of Tobit. He guides Tobiah on a journey, drives away demons and cures Tobit's blindness. These are not mythical characters or vague spiritual metaphors. They are real, personal beings who act in human history at God's command. They do not seek our worship but point us toward the living God, whom they serve with perfect obedience and love.

On the 2nd of October, we commemorate the Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels. Every person, according to the constant teaching of the Church, is assigned a guardian angel by God. This is not a sentimental idea or folklore, it is a doctrine rooted in Scripture and affirmed by the saints. In Matthew 18:10, Christ warns: “See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven.” The Catechism teaches: “From infancy to death human life is surrounded by their watchful care and intercession” (CCC 336). Your guardian angel is not a vague “energy” or simply a comforting idea. He is a powerful living spirit who sees God face to face, yet is personally tasked with protecting your soul. This protection is primarily spiritual, assisting us in temptation, guiding us to make good choices and even prompting repentance. Many saints, including Padre Pio and St Thérèse of Lisieux cultivated a deep relationship with their guardian angels and encouraged others to do the same.

In our time, there has been a troubling rise in distorted views of angels. Contemporary “angelology” often strips angels of their true nature, reducing them to cosmic energy forces, spirit guides, or wish-granting magical beings. This New Age fascination bears no resemblance to the angels of Sacred Scripture or Tradition. Authentic Catholic teaching reminds us that angels are not gods, nor do they operate independently of God. They do not exist to serve our personal desires or affirm our feelings. Their only mission is to carry out God's will. True devotion to the angels always leads us closer to God, not away from Him. Any attempt to contact angels through occult means, channelling, or spiritualism is gravely sinful and contrary to the First Commandment. We are not to seek power from angels, but to entrust ourselves to their guidance as instruments of God's grace.

How should we respond to these feasts? With gratitude and renewed devotion. Thank God for the angels who defend us in the unseen battles of life. Call on your guardian angel daily. Invoke St Michael in times of temptation. Ask St Gabriel to help you proclaim the Gospel. Pray to St Raphael for healing, spiritual and physical. The angels remind us that we are never alone. God, in His infinite wisdom and love surrounds us with these messengers of His providence. May we walk in their light, trusting always in the God they serve. Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael. Pray for us!

God bless you all,
Fr Hilton
